

Celebrate Earth Day!

AMERICAN CONSERVATIONISTS BY: PETER ANDERSON

GIFFORD PINCHOT: AMERICAN FORESTER-Biography of Gifford Pinchot, a pioneer in the field of forestry, who expanded the United States Forestry Division, hired the first forest rangers, and with the help of fellow outdoorsman President Teddy Roosevelt, established many forest reserves.

JOHN MUIR: WILDERNESS PROPHET-Biography of naturalist John Muir, whose love for the wilderness and battles on behalf of the environment, inspired him to found the Sierra Club.

HENRY DAVID THOREAU: AMERICAN NATURALIST-Introduces the life, ideas, and writings of the nineteenth-century philosopher and nature writer.

ALDO LEOPOLD: AMERICAN ECOLOGIST- A biography of the ecologist whose pioneering contributions to wildlife management have influenced generations of conservationists.

JOHN JAMES AUDUBON: WILDLIFE ARTIST-A biography of the nineteenth-century ornithologist, naturalist, and artist famous for his accurate paintings of birds and animals.