

NATIONAL POETRY MONTH

Twinkle, twinkle: an Animal Lover's Mother Goose- Real animals pose in painted scenes in this collection of Mother Goose rhymes.

The New Adventures of Mother Goose- A collection of contemporary Mother Goose rhymes, based on the original characters.

Nursery Rhymes: a collection from Mother Goose- A selection of Mother Goose rhymes illustrated by a variety of artists.

F E G: Ridiculous(Stupid) Poems for Intelligent Children- "FEG is a bright, offbeat, engaging collection designed to show that being smart needn't keep you from having fun.

Whynken, Blynken, & Nod: a poem by Eugene Field-In this bedtime poem, three fishermen in a wooden shoe catch stars in their nets of silver and gold.

The Rainbow Hand- A collection of eighteen original poems about mothers and motherhood, including "Mother's Heart," "Old Mother Chung," and "The Pilot."

Waiting to Waltz, a Childhood: poems-A cycle of thirty poems chronicles a young girl's growing up in a small Appalachian town.