

NATIONAL POETRY MONTH

Desiderata: words for life- Presents the text of the well-known inspirational poem that advises one to "go placidly amid the noise and haste" because "you are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars."

Heroes and She-Roes: Poems of Amazing and Everyday Heroes- Twenty-one poems celebrate and chronicle the actions of real-life persons--and one dog--who have performed heroic acts in service to others.

The House That Crack Built- Cumulative verses describes the creation, distribution, and destructive effects of crack cocaine.

Voices From The Fields- Photographs, poems, and interviews with children reveal the hardships and hopes of Mexican American migrant farm workers and their families.

Voices From The Streets- Photographs, poems, and interviews with former gang members from different regions of the United States depict their experiences.

Listen for a Whisper- More than two hundred prayers, poems, and reflections on faith, hope, love, and God, by girls ages eleven to eighteen, selected from Catholic schools and parishes throughout the country.
