STUDENT / PARENT COPY

Vision Statement:

American Senior High School, in conjunction with Florida Virtual School (FLVS), emphasizes good moral character, a strong work ethic, and a united vision for success and academic integrity.

Mission Statement:

It is the mission of American Senior High School to ensure that students are held accountable for their actions while taking a FLVS course at our institution. Students currently enrolled in Economics with Financial Literacy/U.S. Government through FLVS must adhere to policies set forth by FLVS. (For more information about FLVS academic integrity policy go to <https://www.flvs.net/student-resources/academic-integrity>.) All students in violation of these policies will be subject to the consequences delineated in the American Senior High School Florida Virtual School Contract.

Examples of Academic Integrity Violations:

1. Submitting all or a portion of another student's work as your own
2. Knowingly sharing your work with another student
3. Copying/pasting information from unapproved sources
4. Failure to properly cite information from outside sources
5. Failing to safeguard your own work
 - a. Failure to log off your FLVS account anytime you are not at your computer
 - b. Sharing your username and password
 - c. Saving your work on an unsecured shared computer

Consequences:

1st Offense: Administrative phone call home. Additionally, student must serve a lunch or after school detention.

2nd Offense: Administrative phone call home; this offense will be recorded in student's academic record via a referral. Student must also serve a Saturday detention at American Senior High from 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. where the student will be required to hand write a 2 page-reflection paper on plagiarism.

3rd Offense and beyond: Administrative phone call home; this offense will be recorded in student's academic record via a referral. Student will also begin to lose senior activity privileges. One activity will be lost for each academic integrity violation incurred. (Parent: This may result in your child being unable to participate in such senior activities as Homecoming, Prom, and even Graduation.)
