Book Fair Field Trip

On November 21st, the Future Educators of America headed Downtown to the Miami book fair. Along with shopping for books, they saw Senator John Lewis, the last participant in the March on Washington still alive, as he gave a speech about the sit-ins in Alabama and Martin Luther King. It was a very rich and fulfilling experience for the club members who were able to participate.

Orchestra Brazil Auction

DASH is extremely excited to be the beneficiary of the Orchestra Brazil museum-quality furniture Silent Auction during Art Basel. The net proceeds of the money raised during the silent auction will help benefit DASH students thanks to Judy Holm. Students also have the opportunity to volunteer to help with the event and earn community service hours. The auction will be on Thursday, December 5th from 11am to 1pm. The fair runs from December 4th to December 7th and is located across from the Miami Fair. 3501 NE Midtown Blvd 36th Str.

DASH + SVA + NYC:

A Student Exhibit

On Thursday, November 21st, the Young Designers Consortium displayed the art work and memories that they created during their precollege program at SVA. The students used iPads that were donated by the Key Biscayne Giving Circle and Rosa de la Cruz to document and present their experience in the new DASH gallery.

Upcycled Recap

On Friday, November 15th, the fashion seniors presented their recreated mens shirts in Upcycled. The show was judged by fashion designer Lisa Rubin, LA Boudoir

On Thursday, November 21st, selected students of DASH were able to exhibit their work at the student curated show “Post Post”. Thank you to Paloma Izquierdo, Luma Louzada, Juan Matos, and Valentina Vergara for making the show successful and orderly.
